

Last updated on: November 15th, 2017

1. App does not auto connect to the adapter

Unlike some adapters in the market the INLINE 7 and INLINE mini do not auto connect to the mobile device after the initial connection. This is by design to prevent unintended auto connection in locations where multiple users share the adapters.

We are investigating if something can be done to make it easier to the user.